

The Attorney will primarily represent the law firm in criminal defense matters, the majority of which shall be appointed through the Lyon County Defender Contract. Attorneys represent criminal defendants in criminal investigations, pre-trial hearings, trial preparation, and trial appearances in the State of Nevada. Duties include preparing, reviewing, and researching complex legal documents and criminal case law, and handling a variety of criminal, juvenile, and 432(b) cases, from arraignment through trial.

Depending on experience, attorneys shall be assigned to handle misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, and/or felony criminal, juvenile, and 432(b) cases that qualify for appointment of a public defender. Attorneys shall be assigned to handle each case from start to finish, with supervision depending on experience and qualifications of the attorney. Senior attorneys may be assigned to supervision of cases of associate attorneys. This role shall be responsible for a significant caseload, and requires high attention to detail and strong advocacy skills. Attorneys shall be required to travel between the three Justice Courts and District Court located in Lyon County.
