Description:

The Nevada Supreme Court just decided the landmark case of Valdez-Jiménez which fundamentally changes the pre-trial detention analysis for all Courts throughout the State. It is essential that defenders master the new procedure required by this case in their advocacy to secure their client's release before trial. Nancy Lemcke and Christy Craig were the lawyers in Valdez-Jiménez and they will present a comprehensive overview of how lawyers should advocate for their clients based on this case. Participants will also participate in a workshop session where they will practice arguments for release under the new pre-trial detention procedure and caselaw.

Nancy and Christy will host three video conferences via interactive Zoom Meetings on June 26, July 16, and July 17 beginning at 12:00 pm each afternoon. There will be eight (8) participants per class for a total of 24 slots.

Please RSVP to jarrod.hickman@dids.nv.gov and list the program dates in order of preference. There is no cost to attend this CLE.

Slots will be reserved on a "first come, first served" basis and limited to indigent defense providers. The first 24 responses will be sent a confirmation email. A link to the Zoom Meeting and materials for the CLE will be sent in advance of the program.
