4. Streamline, clarify, or improve regulations to make regulations concise and easily understandable to ensure greater access and transparency in the regulatory process. See Executive Order 2023-008

Sec. 22.

1. A plan for the provision of indigent defense services must provide the process a county will use to hire attorneys who serve as the Public Defenders and Chief Public Defenders of a county public defender office, are independent contractors to provide indigent defense services and panels of appointed attorneys. The process must be designed to provide notice of the opportunity to apply and a reasonable opportunity for interested parties to respond.

2. Consistent with the provisions of section 21 of this regulation, the process must [should] exclude prosecuting and law enforcement officials. The creation of a selection committee that utilizes stakeholders concerned with the integrity of indigent defense services, which may include the Department, is recommended. Judicial input in the hiring process may be considered but must [should] not be the sole basis for selection.

3. For the purposes of evaluating an application, the process must require, without limitation:

(a) In a county whose population is less than 100,000, verification that the applicant is included on the roster of attorneys who are eligible to provide indigent defense services that the Department compiles pursuant to section 30 of this regulation; and

(b) The consideration of the following factors:

- (1) The experience and qualifications of the applicant;
- (2) The past performance of the applicant in representing defendants in criminal cases;

- (4) If the applicant is an independent contractor, the cost of the service under the contract.

4. County Plans must provide a process for selection of additional or alternate counsel when the counsel who would normally be assigned to a case under the Plan does not have sufficient qualifications to match the complexity of the case assignment. If a county has contracted with an attorney that has an insufficient qualification level to handle all cases to which he/she is assigned, the county must set forth how a first chair counsel or alternate counsel, at county expense, will be assigned to the case.

Sec. 23.

1. A plan for the provision of indigent defense services must set forth the process of screening for indigency that is necessary for the judicial determination of eligibility for appointed counsel. The process of screening for indigency must:

- (a) Occur prior to, or at the earlier of, the initial arraignment or appearance and not later than 48 hours after the arrest of the defendant; and
- (b) Describe the person or agency responsible for the screening.

2. After such screening and upon a judge, justice of the peace, municipal judge, or master finding that a defendant is eligible for appointed counsel in accordance with subsection 3 of NRS 171.188 [~~as amended by section 11 of Assembly Bill No. 480, chapter 380, Statutes of Nevada 2021, at page 2266~~], the plan must provide for the prompt appointment of counsel. If a public defender is disqualified from providing representation, a plan must provide for the selection of another attorney in accordance with NRS 7.115, [~~as amended by section 5 of Assembly Bill No. 480, chapter 380, Statutes of Nevada 2021, at page 2263~~], and NRS 171.188 [~~, as amended by section 11 of Assembly Bill No. 480, chapter 380, Statutes of Nevada 2021, at page 2266~~].

3. Each plan must provide for a first and second tier of indigent defense representation.

(a) If a county uses multiple attorneys who are independent contractors for first tier representation in lieu of an office of public defender, the plan must describe how attorneys are assigned to cases. The distribution of cases may be made on a rotational basis or in accordance with another method that ensures the fair distribution of cases. A first tier consisting of multiple independent attorneys or offices may constitute a first and second tier, as determined by the Department.

(b) If the first-tier attorney is an office of the public defender and [or if] the public defender is disqualified, a plan must describe the second tier and how attorneys in that tier are assigned cases. The distribution of cases may be made on a rotational basis or in accordance with another method that ensures the fair distribution of cases.

(c) Counties may not rely upon the appointed counsel list to provide representation for first and second tier counsel. An exception to this may be requested from the Department.

4. A plan for indigent defense services must require that an attorney be present at pretrial release hearings, initial appearances and arraignments and be prepared to address appropriate release conditions in accordance with all relevant laws, rules of criminal procedure and caselaw. A plan must provide that a timely initial appearance or arraignment must not be delayed pending a determination of the indigency of a defendant. [A plan should ensure the presence of counsel at all other critical stages, whether in court or out of court] The plan must set forth the process for assigning or determining the attorney to be present.

5. This section must not be construed to preclude a defendant from waiving the appointment of an attorney in accordance with subsection 1 of NRS 171.188 [~~as amended by section 11 of Assembly Bill No. 480, chapter 380, Statutes of Nevada 2021, at page 2266~~].

Sec. 27.

1. A plan for the provision of indigent defense services must require that representation be provided in a professional, skilled manner consistent with all applicable laws, regulations and rules of professional conduct and the Nevada Indigent Defense Standards of Performance set forth in ADKT No. 411 of the Nevada Supreme Court and ABA Defense Function Standards. Any plan or contract for the provision of indigent defense services must require the attorney representing the defendant to:

- (a) Advise each client not to waive any substantive rights or plead guilty at the initial appearance unless doing otherwise is in the best interest of the client; and
- (b) Make all reasonable efforts to meet with each client within the first 7 days following the assignment of the case and, unless there are no significant updates in the client's case, every 30 days thereafter.

3. A plan for the provision of indigent defense services in a county whose population is less than 100,000 must ensure that any client surveys authorized by the Board are provided to a client at the conclusion of his or her representation by an attorney.

Sec. 30.

1. To ensure that the ability, training and experience of an attorney in a criminal matter matches the complexity of a case, [~~the~~] all indigent defense attorneys, including those employed by a public defender office, must demonstrate compliance with the standards and regulations of the Board pertaining to training, education and qualifications by submitting an application to the Department on a form approved by the Department. The application must be submitted:

- (a) By mail; or
- (b) Electronically, as provided on the website of the Department.

2. The Department shall, not later than 30 days after receiving an application:

- (a) Review the application and determine the areas of indigent defense services in which the attorney is qualified; and
- (b) Provide written notice of the determination of the Department to the attorney.

3. After an attorney submits an application pursuant to this section, the attorney may continue practicing in the areas of indigent defense for which the attorney is seeking the determination of the Department until the attorney receives written notice of the determination.

4. If the Department determines that an attorney is qualified to provide indigent defense services, the Department shall place the name of the attorney and his or her areas of qualification on a roster of attorneys who are eligible to provide indigent defense services that will be used by boards of county commissioners to select the attorneys who will provide indigent defense services for a county. An attorney may, at any time, seek qualification for different or other areas of indigent defense by submitting another application pursuant to this section that demonstrates the additional qualifications.

5. If an attorney disagrees with the determination of the Department regarding the areas in which the attorney is qualified to provide indigent defense services, the attorney may submit a request for reconsideration to the Department not later than 30 days after receiving the determination of the Department. The Board will review any request for reconsideration that is submitted to the Department.

6. Except as provided in subsection (7), the [The] failure of an attorney to submit an application before providing indigent defense services for a county or a municipality or to practice only within the areas in which the attorney is qualified may result in the exclusion or removal of the attorney, as applicable, from the roster of attorneys who are eligible to provide indigent defense services established pursuant to subsection 4.

7. If a contract attorney does not have the qualifications necessary to handle the full range of cases required for the contract, the attorney may not be assigned to cases outside their qualification level, unless a qualified first chair attorney is also appointed, at county expense, for every such case. The process for achieving this must be set forth in the county's plan.

Sec. 31.

1. An attorney who seeks to provide indigent defense services to a person charged with a misdemeanor must:

- (a) Be licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada; and

SMALL BUSINESS IMPACT STATEMENT REGARDING PROPOSED REPEAL, AMENDMENT, AND PROMULGATION OF NAC 180 REGULATIONS

1. A description of the manner in which comment was solicited from affected small business, a summary of their responses, and explanation of the manner in which other interested persons may obtain a copy of the summary:

The Department of Indigent Defense Services requested input from private attorneys, law firms, and related businesses via an e-mailed survey link.

The survey asked for input on economic effects on small businesses with space to elaborate on responses.

The Department received six (6) completed surveys.

2. The manner in which the analysis was conducted:

The Department has reviewed the six (6) responses, the narrative responses to the question: "In what way would the repeal of regulations or promulgation of proposed regulations as outlined above affect your small business?" are provided in full as follows:

1. "They would improve the economic climate for small businesses, including mine. Specifically, the reimbursement rate for contract public defense work in Nevada is only $100 at present, which is lower than the federal rate (approximately $150, automatically adjusted for inflation) and much lower than a private paying client. A lot of other lawyers I speak with don't take contract defense work from the State for this reason. Increasing the reimbursement rate would directly benefit the lawyers who do this work, and would also encourage a greater pool of lawyers to get involved, thereby improving the quality of representation for post-conviction/rural defendants."
2. "I think over all it would assist my business [sic] as any reduction of regulation and ability to obtain a better rate to be functional in doing the job would be a benefit to my office."
3. "They would not."
4. "The regulations, as is, is just fine for my business. Changing them would have unknown externalities, though the services I provide to Douglas County are a who would be your local and easily accessible expert at DIDS. This may well affect my business, but how, I have no idea.”

5. “In the event that COLA increases greater than 5%, this statute apparently caps any requested increase in compensation that would match COLA to 5%.”
6. “A change in regulations that increased the ‘overhead’ costs of rural indigent defense, absent an increase in compensation, would cause my business to accept fewer such cases because more lucrative opportunities exist.

A change in regulations that reduced the resources allocated to BIDS would likely cause my business to accept fewer rural indigent defense cases because the reduced efficiency of, and availability of support from, BIDS would make such cases less attractive.

A change in regulations that increased compensation for rural indigent defense would likely cause my business to accept more rural indigent defense cases because it would improve the value proposition of such cases relative to other privately retained or appointed cases.

A change in regulations that increased support for virtual appearances in rural indigent defense cases would cause my business to accept more such cases because it would reduce the overhead cost of such representation.”

The Department considered the narrative responses to the survey and utilized logical reasoning to analyze an estimated economic effect of the proposed regulatory changes. The Department has not received enough data to determine in a statistically significant way whether a direct or significant economic burden would be imposed upon small businesses.

3. The estimated economic effect of the proposed regulation on the small business which it is to regulate, including, without limitation both adverse and beneficial effects; and both direct and indirect effects.

There are no reasonably foreseen potential adverse economic impacts to small business.

The provisions sought to be repealed do not affect small businesses directly, rather, the statute that supersedes the regulation has set limits on how much a county’s maximum contribution amount may increase each year (5% or inflation, whichever is less). The State continues to bear the responsibility to reimburse counties for expenditures on indigent defense above their maximum contribution.

A provision to have the Board on Indigent Defense Services set an hourly rate for rural county appointed counsel and post-conviction appointed counsel is expected to increase the rate currently in statute, last increased in 2003, from $100 to a to-be-determined amount. The increased hourly rate would cause small businesses currently providing these services to obtain more compensation for each hour of work done when appointed to these types of cases, which would be a net-positive impact on such businesses.

With regard to promulgating workload/caseload standards, which would require each county to retain a particular minimum number of full time-equivalent (FTE) attorneys to practice indigent defense, it is unclear what the impact would be on small businesses. There is a dearth of practicing attorneys in Nevada's rural counties (i.e., very few attorneys per capita) when compared with Washoe and Clark counties. Such a scarcity may be compensated for with increased spending to bring additional small business attorneys to practice in counties where more attorneys will be needed to comply with the minimums. This may lead to a positive benefit to small businesses who are able to utilize the scarcity to increase their rates and a benefit to small businesses not currently in the rural county markets who would not participate unless and until the rates increased to market levels.

4. A description of the methods that the agency considered to reduce the impact of the proposed regulations on small businesses and a statement regarding whether the agency actually used any of those methods.

The agency has not utilized any impact-reduction methods due to the likelihood of positive impacts and the lack of knowledge of negative impacts.

5. The estimated cost to the agency for the enforcement of the proposed regulation.

The estimated cost to the agency is unknown at this time.

The cost to the agency in reimbursing counties who spend more than their annual maximum contribution on indigent defense services may increase due to an increased hourly rate, which has not been increased since 2003. The amount of the increased cost would depend on the rate selected, and whether the counties choose to enter into more, or fewer, fixed-rate contracts in the future.

The cost to the agency in reimbursing counties who spend more than their annual maximum contribution on indigent defense services may increase due to promulgating workload/caseload standards, which would require each county to retain a particular minimum number of full time-equivalent (FTE) attorneys to practice indigent defense. The Department has estimated costs of approximately $5.7 million in the first year after standards are promulgated and $5.9 million in the following year. Assembly Bill 518 (82nd Session, 2023) set aside funds for the Interim Finance Committee to provide to the department explicitly for this purpose.

The cost to the agency for paying attorneys appointed to represent indigent persons in post-conviction habeas corpus proceedings will likely increase by an unknown amount. The Nevada State Public Defender's Office (a subordinate agency of the Department) maintains an account funded by the general fund for the payment of costs for representation in postconviction cases. The amount spent varies from year to year based on the number of active petitions and the amount of time spent by the appointed attorneys. An increase from the $100 per hour statutory rate would proportionally increase the cost to the account.

6. If the proposed regulation provides a new fee or increases an existing fee, the total annual amount the agency expects to collect, and the manner in which the money will be used.

The proposed regulatory amendments does not involve an increase to existing fees or create any new fees.

7. If the Proposed Regulation Included Provisions Which Duplicate or Are More Stringent Than Federal, State or Local Standards Regulating the Same Activity, an Explanation of Why Such Duplicative or More Stringent Provisions Are Necessary.

N/A.

8. The Reasons For the Conclusions of the Agency Regarding the Impact of a Regulation on Small Businesses.

The principal assumptions for the impacts of the regulations is that the hourly rate for appointed attorneys will increase from the statutory rate of $100 (which was contemplated at prior Board on Indigent Defense Services meetings), that the workload/caseload standards will increase the need for attorneys in the rural counties, and the observation that there are very few attorneys per capita in Nevada's rural counties.

a. Does the Proposed Regulation Impose a Direct and Significant Economic Burden Upon Small Businesses?

The proposed regulatory changes does not impose a direct or significant economic burden upon small businesses.

b. Will the Proposed Regulation Directly Restrict the Formation, Operation or Expansion of a Small Business?

The proposed regulatory changes will not directly restrict the formation, operation, or expansion of a small business.
